Roswell, GA – The National Down Syndrome Congress (NDSC) is thrilled to announce our Congressional Policy Agenda for the 118th Congress. The NDSC's 118th Congressional Policy Agenda includes a focus on education, employment, Medicaid and Long-Term Services and Supports, and Social Security policies impacting people with Down syndrome. Other policy priorities include policies pertaining to civil rights, family support, financial security, healthcare, housing, increasing research funding, and increasing accessibility in the transportation sector.

“We are excited to announce our Congressional Policy Agenda for the 118th Congress,” said Jordan Kough, Executive Director of the National Down Syndrome Congress. “This is a bold agenda and we look forward to working with Congress to address key issues affecting the lives of people with Down syndrome and their families.”
